

Debate 5 - Policy

Artificial Intelligence Policy

Prof. Jack Reilly

S2026

Resolution

To ameliorate future disruption in the labor market caused by artificial intelligence, the United States should implement a universal basic income.

Table 1: Teams

Affirm	Negate	Jury
Team 3	Team 2	Team 1

Amendments and Adjustments

- See debate guidelines and debate tips for guidance and details.
- The standard class debate format for this debate has been modified in the following ways:
 1. Constructive (4 min per team)
 - 1 min prep
 2. Cross-Examination (8 min total, back and forth)
 - 2 min prep
 3. Rebuttal (2.5 min per team)
 - 1 min prep
 4. Final Focus (1 min per team)

Judge's Notes

- This debate may require additional external research. Some places to start on UBI (Universal Basic Income):
 - “What is Universal Basic Income” Stanford Basic Income Lab.
 - Flowers, 2016. “What Would Happen If We Just Gave People Money?” FiveThirtyEight.com.
 - * The version at archive.org renders better now: Archive.org link
 - Bidanure, 2019. “The Political Theory of Universal Basic Income”
 - Pettit, 2008. “A Republican Right to Basic Income?”